- 5) In the event Borrower fails to pay the entire principle indebtedness evidenced by this Note, or any portion thereof as described by events described above in paragraph 4, the note may be demanded for full payment including all accrued interest.

- 6) Borrower pledges his individual interest in DDM, DCSL and any related entity controlled by Borrower as additional consideration for the loan presented by Lenders.

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Little Isle IV, LLC, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

Kenneth A. Jowdy,

Defendant.

No. CV09-0142-PHX-SRB

ORDER

Plaintiffs filed their complaint in state court on October 29, 2008. Among the allegations in the complaint were that the Plaintiff Philip Kenner was a resident of the State of Arizona and that the corporate defendants were Delaware corporations authorized to do business in Arizona. After Defendant waived service of process in late December 2008, he filed a Notice of Removal to this Court claiming diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because he is a citizen of Nevada and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00. Defendant also filed a Motion to Dismiss.

The first of several unusual events then occurred. When Plaintiffs responded to the Motion to Dismiss they attached a document purporting to be a promissory note which, as the Court noted in its order granting the Motion to Dismiss, had terms inconsistent with the terms alleged in the Complaint for the alleged loans that were the subject of the suit. Defendant alleged that the note was a forgery and sought expedited discovery concerning the

1 document. The Court granted the motion for this limited discovery. Plaintiffs also attempted 2 to save their complaint from dismissal by improperly alleging numerous additional facts in 3 their response to the Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiffs also claimed that they did not have 4 possession of the original note asserting that Defendant was the holder of the original note.

5 The second unusual event occurred when Plaintiffs filed their First Amended 6 Complaint on May 22, 2009. In the Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs alleged for the first time 7 that Plaintiff Kenner was a citizen, not of Arizona, but of Nevada. Plaintiffs also filed a 8 Motion for Remand to state court arguing that the original complaint did not identify 9 Kenner's citizenship and Defendant, in his original Notice of Removal, wrongly assumed 10 that Kenner's state of residency and state of citizenship were the same. Also asserted as a 11 basis for remand was that Defendant did not meet his burden of establishing that the 12 members of the corporate Plaintiffs, as listed in Plaintiffs' Corporate Disclosure Statement, 13 were citizens of states other than Nevada. Plaintiff ignores the fact that Defendant could not 14 have made that allegation at the time of the removal because Plaintiffs did not file their 15 corporate disclosure statement as required. On January 26, 2009, a Notice of Deficiency was 16 issued to the corporate plaintiffs advising them of the requirement to file a Corporate 17 Disclosure Statement. They were given 15 days to file it. No Corporate Disclosure Statement 18 was filed. The Court then issued an Order to Show Cause on March 31, 2009, advising 19 Plaintiffs that if they failed to file their Corporate Disclosure Statement within 10 business 20 days that sanctions would be imposed. It was only after this Court Order threatening 21 sanctions that the Corporate Disclosure Statement was filed. Shortly thereafter Defendant 22 amended his Notice of Removal to allege the diversity of the members of each corporate 23 defendant.

24 Because of Plaintiff Kenner's new assertion that he was a citizen of Nevada rather 25 than of Arizona a question arose concerning this Court's subject matter jurisdiction. In 26 response to the Motion for Remand, Defendant challenged the assertion that Kenner was a 27 Nevada citizen and accused Kenner of making this false claim solely to defeat diversity 28 jurisdiction. Defendant requested discovery from Plaintiffs about Kenner's citizenship.

1 On July 15, 2009, the Court granted Defendant's request for discovery on the 2 jurisdictional question arising from Kenner's claim of Nevada citizenship. The Court 3 included in its order that jurisdictional discovery could include a request for production of 4 documents of Plaintiff Kenner, Kenner's deposition and the depositions of Tracy Kenner and 5 Rebekah Baumgardner. Defendant was ordered to advise the Court in writing concerning 6 the completion of the jurisdictional discovery so that the Court could determine whether an 7 evidentiary hearing was needed and when it could rule on the Motion to Remand. Defendant 8 promptly attempted to complete the authorized discovery.

9 On October 16, 2009, Defendant filed a Status Report concerning jurisdictional 10 discovery advising the Court that jurisdictional discovery was not yet complete because 11 Kenner had refused to provide a date for the rescheduling of his deposition and had refused 12 to respond to Defendant's inquiries regarding deficiencies in his responses to the Request for 13 Production of Documents. Around the same time Plaintiffs' counsel sought leave to 14 withdraw. In the report to the Court, Defendant advised that Kenner's deposition was 15 originally scheduled for June 15, 2009. On the morning of the deposition Plaintiffs' counsel 16 advised Defendant that Kenner was out of town and would not be attending. Kenner failed to 17 provide any alternate dates for his deposition. It was then noticed by Defendant for July 14, 18 2009.

19 Kenner appeared on July 14, 2009, but left before the deposition could be completed 20 claiming he needed to catch a flight. As of October 16, 2009, Kenner had not provided any 21 date to complete his deposition. Defendant re-noticed Kenner's deposition for December 4, 22 2009 at which time Kenner appeared.

23 Plaintiffs' counsel's Motion to Withdraw was granted on October 23, 2009. On 24 November 3, 2009, the Court issued an order advising Plaintiffs that there was a pending 25 Motion to Remand filed May 22, 2009 and that the Court had entered an order permitting 26 limited discovery that Defendant could take in connection with that motion. The order 27 summarized the difficulties in completing discovery outlined in the October 16, 2009 report.
28 The Court also noted that Plaintiffs were presently without counsel and advised Plaintiffs that

1 Philip Kenner could represent himself but the corporate plaintiffs would be required to be 2 represented by counsel. The Court ordered that Little Isle IV and Ula Makika, LLC's claims 3 would be dismissed if counsel did not make an appearance on their behalf within 30 days of 4 November 2, 2009. The Court also ordered Kenner to advise the Court in writing within 30 5 days of November 2, 2009, whether he intended to proceed with his case pro se and to 6 respond to the allegations made about his failure to make himself available for deposition.
7 Kenner was advised that the case¹ would be dismissed without further notice if Kenner failed 8 to comply with the Court's order.

9 While a Notice of Appearance was filed by a lawyer on behalf of Philip Kenner, Little 10 Isle IV and Ula Makika on December 3, 2009, no written response to the Court's order was 11 ever filed. On December 15, 2009, the Court dismissed the case in accordance with its 12 November 2, 2009 order for Plaintiffs' failure to comply with that order. Approximately four 13 weeks later, and only after Defendant had noticed the lodging of a form of judgment, 14 Plaintiffs filed the pending motion entitled "Plaintiffs' Motion for New Trial and/or to 15 Alter/Vacate Order Dated December 16, 2009." This Court's December 16, 2009 order was 16 noticed electronically to Plaintiffs' counsel on December 16, 2009 at 10:53 a.m.

17 Plaintiffs' new counsel argues that the Court should vacate its order of dismissal 18 because Plaintiffs obtained new counsel who filed an appearance within the time specified in 19 the Court's November 2, 2009 order and because Plaintiff Kenner appeared for the 20 continuance of his deposition on December 4, 2009. Counsel then attempts to convince the 21 Court that he acted diligently, by initiating discovery, by noticing Defendant's deposition and 22 by serving a first request for production of documents. Apparently Plaintiffs' counsel has not 23 reviewed the file in this case to note that discovery, except for the limited discovery 24 previously authorized by the Court on the citizenship of Kenner and on the alleged forged 25 note, is not yet authorized to proceed. Plaintiffs' counsel argues that because he has done

27 ¹Kenner is the managing member of both corporate plaintiffs and the sole member of 28 Ula Makika, LLC. Kenner's failures to cooperate with discovery and comply with court orders therefore are also failures of the companies he controls.

1 more to prosecute Plaintiffs' case within the two weeks prior to the Court's order of dismissal
2 than Plaintiffs' prior attorneys did that dismissal would result in manifest injustice. It is not 3 clear to this Court that Plaintiffs' counsel has any idea that Plaintiffs have challenged this 4 Court's jurisdiction. Counsel also attaches a deposition of over 400 pages taken of Defendant 5 in an unrelated case arguing that if the Court were to review this deposition it would find that 6 Defendant has taken a different position with respect to the money at issue in this case in that 7 unrelated case and that this testimony somehow warrant's reversal of the Court's order of 8 dismissal. The Court has not reviewed the 400 pages deposition and finds it irrelevant to the 9 pending motion.

10 In response to Plaintiffs' motion, Defendant raises numerous unanswered questions.
11 For example, Plaintiffs' motion states that it is brought under Rule 59 allegedly because Rule 12 59 is the only Rule that would permit this motion to be timely. Rule 59 motions can be filed 13 28 days after the entry of the order or judgment from which a new trial is sought. Defendant 14 argues that Plaintiffs' motion is one for reconsideration. A Motion for Reconsideration must 15 be filed 14 days after the order from which reconsideration is sought. Citing the standards for 16 a Motion for Reconsideration, Defendant argues that Plaintiffs have not shown that the 17 Court's order dismissing the action amounted to a clear error of law because the five factors 18 justifying dismissal weigh in Defendant's favor. Defendant's response also notes the 19 unexplained failure of Plaintiff to file any timely Motion for Reconsideration despite receipt 20 of the Court's order until after Defendant lodged a proposed form of judgment 20 days after 21 the order of dismissal was entered. Defendant's response also remarks on the failure of 22 Plaintiffs' motion to address the additional six day delay between the notice of the lodging 23 of the proposed form of judgment and the filing of Plaintiffs' motion.

24 Despite the fact that Plaintiffs' motion still fails to explain Kenner's past failures to 25 appear at his deposition and comply with document requests, and despite the new and 26 disturbing assertion about Plaintiff's failure to attend his June 15, 2009 deposition Plaintiffs 27 failed to file a reply. The explanation given by Plaintiffs' attorney in a June 15, 2009 e-mail 28 was, "Mr. Kenner is traveling and missed his flight to Phoenix last night and will not be able

1 to appear for his deposition scheduled this morning.” Defendant provides evidence that this 2 assertion was false and that Kenner had intentionally travel to Mexico where he gave sworn 3 testimony on June 15 in support of a criminal complaint against Defendant. Robert Gaudet, 4 the witness on the alleged forgery was to be deposed on June 16, 2009. Instead he 5 accompanied Kenner to Mexico and gave sworn testimony on June 16 cancelling his 6 deposition by Defendant. Plaintiff has provided no response to these allegations either in a 7 reply or in response to the Court’s November 3 order.

8 Plaintiffs brought this lawsuit 17 months ago. Four months after removal Kenner 9 suddenly realized that he was not a citizen of Arizona but of Nevada and moved to remand.
10 This case has been pending in this Court for over one year and the jurisdictional issue has not 11 been resolved because of Plaintiffs’ obstruction of discovery. Moreover, despite the 12 suspicious facts and circumstances that have been continuously raised by Defendant with 13 respect to this case Plaintiffs have failed to respond. Even with counsel now presently 14 representing Plaintiffs, the motion filed to set aside the December order contains no 15 explanation as required in this Court’s November 2, 2009 order only counsel’s assertion that, 16 “Mr. Kenner never meant to fail to comply with this Court’s order dated November 2, 2009, 17 and believed that by retaining new counsel and appearing for his deposition as scheduled, he 18 would be in compliance with this Court’s order of November 2, 2009.” This explanation is 19 not credible. The Court has been told of an alleged forgery and a false claim of Nevada 20 citizenship. The Court ordered expedited discovery many months ago and Plaintiffs have 21 delayed and obstructed it. In the light of the assertions in Defendant’s response, this Court 22 draws the inference that no reply has been filed and no excuse has been offered for Plaintiffs’ 23 delay and failures to comply with discovery because the facts asserted surrounding the 24 cancellation of the deposition are true. Plaintiffs’ failures to respond also lend credence to the 25 claims of forgery and false claim to Nevada citizenship.

26 The Court finds that no Rule 59 motion can appropriately be filed from this Court’s 27 December 16, 2009 order because Rule 59(a)(1) states that the ground for new trial are to be 28 asserted after a jury trial or a non-jury trial. Altering or amending a judgment under Rule

Case 2:09-cv-00142-SRB Document 91 Filed 03/12/10 Page 7 of 7

1 59(e) is not the same as vacating a judgment. Plaintiffs' motion is either an untimely Motion
2 for Reconsideration or a Rule 60 Motion for Relief From Judgment or Order. In either case, 3 Plaintiffs have not satisfied the requirements for relief under either Rule 60 or LRCiv 7.2(g).

4 For the reasons outlined in Defendant's Response in Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion, 5 which have not been controverted either legally or factually in a reply,

6 IT IS ORDERED denying Plaintiffs' Motion for New Trial and/or to Alter/Vacate 7 Order Dated December 16, 2009. (Doc. 88).

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED overruling the objections to the proposed form of 9 judgment and ordering that the proposed form of judgment (doc. 87) be entered by the Clerk.

Two weeks later -- Jowdy confessed to all of the loans in his 2-day California deposition -- contradicting every underlying reason for the "expedited discovery" -- and then one year later (Dec 2010), admitted the actual loan document (claimed as a forgery in the AZ case) as authentic in his Nevada trial defense as the key evidence to support his defense theory (which he lost resoundingly)...

AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT, dated as of March , 2003, among BAJA DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Developer"), BAJA MANAGEMENT, LLC, a New York limited liability company (the "Managing Member"), each of which has its principal offices at 2 Dogwood Drive, Danbury, Connecticut 06811 and the person whose name and address are set forth at the end of this Agreement ("Lender").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, an affiliate of Developer, LOR Management, S.A. de C.V., a Mexican corporation, has acquired the rights to a leasehold interest in and an option to purchase approximately 8,000 acres of undeveloped land, including nearly three miles of direct ocean frontage on the Pacific Ocean, in El Rosario, Baja California, Mexico (the "Property");

WHEREAS, the Managing Member has organized Diamante del Mar, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company");

WHEREAS, the Company plans to develop a portion of the Property into Diamante del Mar, an exclusive, private golf community and resort with as many as three golf courses, tennis courts and other recreational facilities, a golf club, fitness center, spa, lodge with apartments, recreational lake, marina and residential villas (the "Resort");

WHEREAS, the Managing Member has prepared an Offering Memorandum for use in raising $7,500,000 to $10,000,000 to finance the pre-development activities of the Managing Member's current development plan for the Resort (the "Offering"), and has provided a copy of such Offering Memorandum to Lender;

WHEREAS, Developer has required funds to finance certain land acquisition costs, consultant studies, tests, preliminary golf course designs and master site plan expenses prior to the first closing of the Offering referred to above, as well as to fund certain other projects of the Developer;

WHEREAS, Lender has loaned $500,000 to Developer to finance a portion of such expenses (the "Loan"), and Lender wishes to participate in the development of the Resort and the Property on the terms and conditions set forth below; and

WHEREAS, Developer has executed and delivered to Lender a five-year promissory note payable to the order of Lender in the principal amount of the Loan, bearing interest at the rate of 3.75% per annum, with principal and interest payable in full on maturity (the "Note", a copy of which is attached to this Agreement);

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. At the Managing Member's request, Lender shall assign the Note to, and contribute the Note to the capital of, the Managing Member in consideration of Lender's admission to the Managing Member as a Class A member and the issuance to Lender of a Class A membership interest in the Managing Member. The Lender's initial capital account in the Managing Member shall be equal to the principal amount of the Note. The Lender shall thereupon execute the Operating Agreement of the Managing Member (the "Operating Agreement"). The Managing Member will then assign the Note to, and contribute the Note to the capital of, the Company.

2. If the development of the Resort is successful, it is expected that the Company will make cash distributions from time to time to its members, including the Managing Member. 3. On the fifth anniversary date of the Note, Developer shall pay to Lender an amount equal to the original principal amount of the Note, plus all accrued interest thereon, less the amount of all cash distributions made to Lender by the Managing Member prior to such date and the amount of any interest paid by the Company on account of any Private Residence Club Certificate or Home Site Certificate distributed to Lender by the Managing Member. Developer shall not be obligated to make any payments with respect to the Note prior to such fifth anniversary.

4. This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter and merges and supersedes all prior agreement, instruments and understandings (including any prior promissory notes) of the parties with respect to its subject matter. No provision of this Agreement may be waived or modified, in whole or in part, except by a writing signed by each of the parties. Failure of any party to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of its rights under such or any other provision. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement in any instance shall be deemed to be a waiver of the same or any other provision in any other instance.

5. This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and fully to be performed in such state, without giving effect to conflicts of law principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first set forth above.
